Foreword

The memory of a typical day spent in school
. . . . . The realization that the building of the mind towers above all else . . . . . The remembrance that charm and attractiveness are the keys to social success . . . . . May we preserve these for you.

Dedication

In acknowledgement of his profound concern with the youth of our school as well as its material growth and change in status, and in gratitude for his long and untiring services as superintendent, we, the class of 1941, dedicate this, our annual, to Mr. L. W. Ensign.

SYNOPSIS

Susan Clifton, the orphaned child of musical parents, is left in care of the skin-flint couple, Mr. and Mrs. Abijah Scroggs.

Susan, aided by Barbara, Jerry, and Bob, enters a contest, and wins a musical scholarship. She tells them her parents left her some property, but the Scroggs won't tell her anything about it.

Bob Coleman, in love with Sue, secures the aid of "Constabule" McSpavin; Bob and Jerry, also romantically inclined, help Bob and Sue. The trouble is cleared up, and the curtain closes on the prospect of a double wedding.

We Sing and Like it

The Glee Clubs this year consisted of thirty-six girls and twenty-two boys under the direction of Miss Christine H. Habegger, who has proven her ability in directing our musical choruses. Among their achievements have been the presentation of the operetta, "Sunbonnet Sue," an appearance on the Christmas, and Farmers' Institute Programs. A rating of superior for the mixed chorus and girls glee club, and a rating of excellent for the boys at the District Contest at Bowling Green. They also represented Haviland at the State Contest at Columbus where the same ratings were earned. Representatives of the mixed chorus took part in the Paulding County Music Festival. All chorus members except the Seniors sang at the graduation exercises. Seventy-five percent of our High School students participate in choral music.

We Play For Fun and Profit

The band, under the direction of Miss Christine Habegger, who also directed our musical choruses, consisted of thirty members led by our drum major LaDona Gusler, assisted by Geneva Decker.

Last fall the band played at the Hallowe'en Band Festival. These music makers were on hand at all home ballgames to add a bit of pep and make many novel formations. Some of the band members represented our band at the Paulding County Music Festival.

SYNOPSIS

Roger Anthony, an amateur writer, inherits a million dollars, and plans to marry Diane Cromwell. Hank and Katie Bullard are hired to keep all people off the place until after the wedding. They succeed until Hank becomes frightened at Jeffery Montgomery Bidwell, the ghost. Roger is confronted with the fact that Diane will not marry a man who has not earned his fortune. He is faced with the problem of deciding whether to keep Diane or the money, and decides in favor of Diane. He divides the money among the Tyson's, Hope De Dope, and Jeffrey Montgomery Bidwell.

He succeeds in giving away the first million, then falls heir to another. Diane decides he is entitled to keep the second million. He nearly loses it, but due to the fact that it was found on his property, receives it. Roger sells his book, regains most of his first million, and finally marries Diane.

Class Prophecy

"Hold Your Hat, Hold Your Chair,
The Man on the Street is on the Air."

This program is brought to you every day of the year by the Loyal Friendship Club located at the intersection of Liberty and Freedom streets, anywhere in the United States. Here he is! The Man on the Street.

"Hello, folks! Here comes a group of people who seem to be enjoying it all immensely. It looks like a hangover from New Years, but let's hear what they have to say. Come over just a little bit closer to the 'Mike'. Who is spokesman for the group? Here is a likely looking fellow. Just what is your name and what do you do?"

"I'm known as Professor Foust at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California."

"You're a long way from home, aren't you? By the way, explain yourself. Is this a convention of some sort?"

"Well, you see, we all graduated in the same class, back in '41, and we thought it would be nice to get together and celebrate."

"Now that is nice! Will you introduce us to the rest of the group?"

"Certainly. I'll do my best anyway. This dignified young lady here is Tabitha Hofacker, House Mother in Dormitory "B" at Vassar. The little blonde on her left is Velma Gusler, owner of Maidies' Beauty Salon in New York City. This attractive couple dressed in Scarlet and White, is "Mary and Larry," the dance team being featured next week at the Troc. This husky chap here is none other than Herb Mosier, owner of a 700 acre cattle ranch in Montana. This man in the green suit is Claude Beard, leader of the orchestra now showing at the ballroom of Hotel Keenan. The girl in red beside him is Amy Line, featured blues singer with his orchestra. Those two girls who are reminiscing are Dorothy Squibb, private secretary to the President, and Caroline Myers, wife of the assistant manager of Pan-American Air Lines. Last, is this dark-haired man, William Stoller, who is manager of the Book-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit. That is all of the group, sir. Our teachers were unable to be with us.

"Well, that's all the time we have, and there they go, that class of '41. This is your man on the Street, saying so-long till tomorrow. Same time. Same station, See you then.

Class Will

Connie Myers leaves her habits of giggling to Wayne Zielke. Poor teachers. Herbert Mosier leaves his hand-holding ability to Coach Raish; he'll keep the girl, Thank you!

William Stoller wills his peace-making ability to Howard Harvey.

Elmer Foust inherits Claude Beard's Donald Duck lingo.

Velma May Gusler wills all her spare time to Wayne Keysor.

Larry Mielke bestows his typewriter to anyone foolish enough to take it.

Mary Hartwig leaves her Bookkeeping workbook to Warren Cadwallader.

Tabitha Hofacker wills her numerous boy friends to Margaurite Smith who doesn't need them but who wants them anyway.

Amy Line leaves her love of good literature to General Dunn.

Ray Foust leaves his love for the Girls to Carl Zielke. Carry on, Carl!
